ORDER

Before the court is a joint motion to modify scheduling order (Doc. No. 9), filed by Plaintiff Leroy Williams and Defendants State of Alabama Department of Transportation and Joe McInnes. The parties request the court to extend the dispositive motion deadline from March 5, 2007, to June 7, 2007. An extension of the dispositive motion deadline to June 7, 2007, however, would not afford the court sufficient time to consider and rule on a summary judgment motion prior to the pretrial hearing which is set on June 15, 2007.¹ (See Doc. No. 8.) Regarding the parties' contention that the discovery deadline does not expire until June 7, 2007, the court directs counsel to the "Frequently Asked Questions" section (question 5) of the Middle District of Alabama's web site at www.almd.uscourts.gov, which explains why the Uniform Scheduling Order establishes a dispositive motion deadline prior to the end of the period allowed for discovery. Accordingly, it is CONSIDERED and ORDERED that the parties' joint motion to modify scheduling order be and the same is hereby DENIED.
